The expenses of the Academic or Law Student, exclusive of the cost of Text-Books and clothing, and pocket money, amount to about $265 per session of nine months, and of the Engineering or Medical Student to about $300, of which sums respectively, $240 or $270, is payable on admission, and the balance in the progress of the session.

JUDGE BROOKS' OPINION.

We have repeatedly denounced Holden's State Troops as unconstitutional, unauthorized by law and wholly unnecessary—that the organization of such a force is a conspiracy against and an attack upon the peace of society—an outrage upon common humanity and a fraud upon the public Treasury. The whole affair is a monster evil. Every possible means should be employed to quash the thing at once.

Judge Brooks, at Salisbury, did not have the question of the lawfulness of the State Troops directly before him, but he incidentally decided the question very fully. He decided that any parole given by or pledge made to Kirk, was neither legally nor morally binding upon any one, for the reason that he had no authority to grant a parole. The decision is no doubt correct. Gov. Holden has no lawful authority to organize State Troops, to clothe or equip or arm them, to feed them while in service or pay them a dollar out of the public Treasury. No claim against the public Treasury of North Carolina or against the State, for clothing, or for commissary stores, or for horses or waggons or provisions of any kind for the State Troops is a legal claim. If you choose to credit Gov. Holden, or Kirk, or Clarke, or any of their subordinates, for anything for the use of these State Troops, you will do it on their personal responsibility, as the State is not bound to pay a dollar to support these troops. We give this warning to the people. Let them heed it. Don't credit Holden, or Clarke, or Kirk, or any of their subordinates, for a dollar's worth of provisions or anything else, expecting to get it out of the State. We tell you that neither Gov. Holden nor Mr. Jenkins, the Public Treasurer, have the right to pay out a dollar for that purpose. Judge Pearson and all the Judges know this. They have sworn to support the Constitution of the United States and they know that this very force is forbidden by the U. S. Constitution.

COL. CLARKE'S AND KIRK'S AUTHORITY.

Clarke nor Kirk, in their hot haste to get position, stopped to enquire into the responsibilities they assumed in raising the State Troops. In this respect Kirk has acted ignorantly perhaps; but Clarke did not. Clarke knew beforehand that Holden had no more right to organize and enlist a volunteer military force in North Carolina, than any other man in the State.

What responsibilities have Holden, Clarke or Kirk or any of their officers incurred by raising these troops? They are amenable to the law, as well as the parties themselves, for any thefts or robberies they have committed, for any rapes, murders or arrests they have made, in fact for every thing the people have suffered from their conduct.

If every enlisted man in these State Troops were to desert to-morrow, Clarke and Kirk have no right to arrest them as deserters. If in the attempt to arrest a deserter he were to kill those attempting the arrest, it is doubtful if he would be amenable to the law. Clarke and Kirk have no right to punish their soldiers for desertion or for any thing else, and if they do punish any of their men they are amenable to the law, and every one of their soldiers badly treated and imprisoned may sue out a writ of habeas corpus.

Col. Clarke had no legal authority to give such orders to his colored troops at the Baptist Grove as led to the shooting of the U. S. soldier by the colored soldier of his State Troops. That colored soldier is liable to the law for that offence in the same way as if he had been a common citizen, and Col. Clarke is equally liable in the same sense, as an accessary to the crime.

HOLDEN STILL ENLISTING STATE TROOPS.

We are told upon good authority, that a few days ago, at least one hundred recruits from Tennessee arrived at Kirk's camp at Company Shops. A few days before arms and clothing had been sent up for them.

An attempt is being made by Holden, the Standard, Kirk and others, no doubt at the suggestion of their legal advisers, to change the name of these "State Troops," to "State Militia." This we expected, and therefore warned the press some days ago, not to call them "militia" but State Troops. This is their proper designation, as can be proven by the orders of Gov. Holden to raise them and other official papers.—Clarke and Kirk in all their orders until within a few days, styled themselves "Col. State Troops." The name resumed by them is of importance, but the character of the troops, is sufficient to condemn them, that it is an unconstitutional and illegal band of marauders.

The Newbern Journal of Commerce sticks to its assertion that the guns fired at the Conservative celebration in Wilmington were heard at Newbern, 75 miles distant.

BENCH WARRANT CASES BEFORE JUDGE PEARSON.

FOURTH DAY.

MONDAY MORNING, Aug. 22.

Chief Justice Pearson took his seat in the Chamber of the Supreme Court at 9 o'clock, A. M.

Judge Merrimon announced that Felix Roan, who had been released by Judge Brooks at Salisbury, and for whom a bench warrant was issued by Judge Pearson on Saturday, was present ready to surrender himself. He was recognized as the others to appear from day to day.

The objection to affidavit on which the bench warrants were issued, was waived by counsel.

The case of State vs. F. A. Wiley was taken up.

Counsel for the State, Messrs. Boyden, McCorkle, Bailey, Badger and Olds.

For the defense, Messrs. Battle & Sons, Bragg, Merrimon, Watt and Winstead.

The following witnesses for the State were then called and sworn: Judy Robinson, Lewis Hill, Anderson Graves, Stephen Lawson, Ben Shaw, Richard Graves, Mack Lester, Ruffin Hill, Hamp Johnston, Humphrey Lea, Dolly Lawson, Jerry Graves, Lewis Evans, George Bowe, Daniel Johnston, Joe Womack, Wiley Turner, Calvin Myers, Iverson Gwynn, (all colored) and John B. Hemphill, Mrs. Martha F. Stephens (widow of John W. Stephens, dec'd,) W. H. Stephens and Zack Hooper, white.

And the following were called and sworn for the defense:

Bryce Harralson, John McKee, (boy) John C. Wilkerson, George Pinnix, J. A. Hopkins, Jerry Smith, A. J. Kimbrough, Dr. P. Roan, Thomas Kimbrough, A. J. Hooper, J. A. Henderson, Thos. Bigelow, Branch Pennix, (all white,) and Elleck Fuller, George Bigelow and Lee Hensley, colored.

Judge Battle, of counsel for the prisoners suggested, by concurrence of counsel on both sides, that further proceedings be held in the Senate Chamber, owing to the crowded state of the Supreme Court room.

His Honor replied, he preferred not to use the Senate Chamber, which was designed for a different use, but would hold the sessions hereafter in the Court House.

The witnesses for the State and for the defense were placed under separate officers to be kept from communication with all persons except the counsel.

The examination was then adjourned to 2.45, P. M. at the Court House.

NOTE.—The Chief Justice stated this morning that he had expected the other Associate Justices of the Supreme Court here this morning, but as they had not arrived, himself and Judge Dick would proceed with the examinations.

The examination of witnesses in the case of Mr. Wiley is still in progress when we go to press.

THE STANDARD AND MR. SHOFFNER.

The Standard of to-day in an article about Mr. Shoffner, a sorry fellow, says "was Gov. Holden wrong in calling out the militia from other counties and giving such protection to good men, as to enable Dr. Moore, Mr. Boyd and others to tell the truth publicly for purposes of justice and law."

The Standard asserts what it knows to be a falsehood. The author of that article knows that Gov. Holden has called out no militia. His "State Troops" are not militia, as can be proven from the official testimony of Gov. Holden, Kirk, Clarke and others. It speaks falsely, in stating that the purpose of Gov. Holden in calling out his State Troops was to enable good men to speak the truth. The Standard knows that Boyd's confession was forced from him by the most abject fear, a fear which he has admitted, and which he is now trying to cover up by his shameless submission and the violation of the confidence reposed in him. Every confession which has been made it is well known, has been made, through the lawless efforts of Kirk's men to intimidate, and yet all the testimony thus forced, implicates no one in any crime. Negroes and low down whites, some of them, no doubt, the guilty parties, have been suborned to testify against good men. But truth will triumph. The article smells as if Gov. Holden wrote it himself under the promptings of James E. Boyd, whose statements and whose character the public now know well how to estimate. The people have already said in thunder tones that Gov. Holden was not justified in calling out State Troops, and when the malice and trickery of himself and his supporters have exhausted themselves in a vain attempt to fix the foul blot of murder upon such men as Wiley and others of Caswell and Alamance, the public will re endorse that decision.

"NEW OUTRAGE."

The SENTINEL of yesterday publishes that Mr. Turner and two other of the prisoners at Graham had been confined in jail. We learn that this was done for the reason that Mr. Turner was safer in jail than out of it, and that he has been very abusive of the guards. Others who have demeaned themselves properly have been treated as leniently as the circumstances would allow. But as the prisoner is now unable to answer for himself, we say no more at present.—Standard.

"Abusive of the guards." To what guards; the ten white vagabonds and two negroes who cocked their guns at him in the streets of Hillsboro? We understand that Mr. Turner had few or no words for Kirk or his officers. When conducted into the presence of Kirk and introduced, Kirk advanced with extended hand. Mr. Turner, with great propriety, put his hands behind him and refused to take Kirk's.—Kirk asked what was he arrested for? Mr. T. said that was the inquiry he wished to make of him. Kirk said he had not even heard of his arrest until just now.

General Douglass said at the supper table in the National Hotel, that "Joe Turner would be hanged and frozed." The Governor need not fear from the odium which attaches to the act, from the ignominious imprisonment of Mr. Turner. "Shame" and imprisonment are too good for such a man. Mr. Turner should be hung by the neck until he is dead, dead, dead, and then cut down and buried, and then dug up and hung again, and then burned, and then his ashes scattered to the winds of heaven, and then let the earth open and swallow up the scattered ashes, and then let the fires of hell rage around the spot where they sink, and then let the devil and all his imps dance a jig on the top of the spot, and then let the whole be covered with the curses of all honest men, and then let the memory of the whole affair be blotted out forever, and then let the whole universe say Amen.

MR. TURNER AT SALISBURY AND ON HIS RETURN TO HILLSBORO.

[BY OUR REPORTER.]

We arrived at Salisbury Thursday morning at 8 o'clock, found a large crowd of citizens congregated at the depot in anticipation of seeing the prisoners, but they were doomed to disappointment, as they were to arrive on an extra train later in the day.

BOYDEN HOTEL.

We stopped at this well known and deservedly popular house, partook of a most excellent breakfast, found everything in good order, in fact, done up Brown.

DICK, THE ROTATOR, SNUBBED.

A large number of gentlemen gathered in front of the Hotel, where they were engaged in conversation when Mr. Badger made his appearance. But few noticed him, but he finally managed to "ring in" conversation turned on the Holden-Pool Pearson and Kirk war with the North Carolina State Troops, upon the honest people of the State. Senator Robbins, of Rowan, entered into the conversation and dealt Mr. B. several home thrusts under which he staggered and failed to recover. He exhibited bad temper, showed his pistols, walked off from the crowd and when within a short distance, hailed Mr. B. and said that he (Badger) was a man, and desired to prove it if anybody wished to try him. The crowd broke out in a loud laugh and he vanished for that day, taking the train for Raleigh that evening.

JUDGE BROOKS.

This gentleman arrived on the 3 o'clock train from Morganton in company with Hon. Zebulon B. Vance. The conversation turned in another direction and decidedly of a more pleasant character. I was introduced to Mr. Mitchell, better known as Bull Mitchell, and enjoyed, hugely, his many jokes.

At the hour of five a large crowd repaired to the depot to receive the prisoners.—Considerable feeling was manifested upon seeing the condition they were in, indicating bad treatment. But all of them seemed to be in such good spirits at the prospect of an early release, that the crowd became better satisfied. Mr. Turner hailed us from the car window, said he had not had a drink of water since Tuesday and would not drink any then if he could get some better milk. He was not long in want of it, for the true people of Salisbury were ready to do any thing in their power to make them comfortable. They were taken to the Town Hall by the U. S. Marshall (Mr. Carrow) and their wants administered to. Kirk was on the train of course, with about 150 men but he was notified pretty soon that his services were not longer needed. The prisoners were shortly after taken to the Court House and ordered to appear on the next day at 10 o'clock. Then there was a general rush of citizens for the prisoners. Everybody wished to shake hands and say, "God bless you." Mr. Turner was at least ½ of an hour getting from the Court House to the Boyden Hotel, he had so many friends to greet him. A majority of the prisoners proposed to remain together, took quarters at the Hotel; some of them were quartered in the town with citizens. After supper at the Boyden House, a large crowd had gathered to hear the prisoners talk of their confinement.

WINDY BILLY.

On walking out on the next morning, our ears were saluted with cries "Whar is Darr's Mule." On glancing across the street there was the veritable Windy Billy walking with his head hung down at quite a brisk pace; still the cries grew stronger "Whar is Darr's Mule" until he disappeared behind a corner. Nothing of interest transpired until the hour for the trial arrived, when the citizens crowded the Court House and remained to the end. That end our readers already know,—the great Ku Klux farce ended in a fix.

JUDGE BROOKS.

Then it was that a truly grateful people did not hesitate to express their gratitude to his honor Judge Brooks for his upright and manly course in this dark and trying hour.

THE RETURN.

When the Court adjourned the hour for returning home was near at hand, and there was a general rush for the Depot. The citizens in large numbers determined to see the last of them, and were on hand. The train moved off amidst loud and continued cheers for "Joe Turner" "long may he live."

At Lexington the houses were illuminated and cheers for "Joe Turner and Habeas corpus," greeted us. At Thomasville there was a gathering of several hundred persons, a large number of whom were ladies with many beautiful bouquets. A stand was erected with a number of transparencies surrounding it. Mr. Turner was called for loudly and was carried to the stand amid loud applause, which was continued during a twenty minutes speech, when he was interrupted with the cry "all aboard." At High Point a crowd was assembled which greeted him with three hearty cheers. At Greensboro there were at least one thousand people assembled. Inspiring cheers were given for "Joe Turner the next Governor of North Carolina," and for "Judge Brooks," and three greens for Holden, Pearson, Kirk & Co. Mr. T. was called out and spoke for five minutes, when the train moved off.

At Company Shops a crowd was assembled who cheered the prisoners and called loudly for Mr. Turner. He appeared on the platform and addressed them until the train moved off. At Hillsboro, the demonstration exceeded any thing we ever witnessed. A large concourse of people had assembled and when the train stopped, we were greeted with a grand display of fire works and firing of cannon. Loud calls were made for Mr. Turner, when found, he was taken up with Gov. Graham and placed in a carriage which the horses had been taken from, and sixty gentlemen caught hold of the tongue and rope with two colored Conservatives Tom Green and Alex Curtis in the lead, and drawn into the town. When they entered the town they were greeted with groups of ladies with smiles of gladness and welcome, men and boys with torch lights, the dwellings illuminated, and loud huzzas of the people. After speeches from Mr. Turner, Gov. Graham and others, the procession having passed through the town, escorted Mr. Turner to his residence to rest for the night.

For the Sentinel.

To His Honor, Chief Justice Pearson:

SIR: Many of the best citizens of this State who have known and honored you many years in the past, in viewing your record for thirty years, as a fearless expounder of the law and a defender of the Constitution of the United States, cannot avoid still looking to you in this trying and threatening crisis, for the exertion of your authority and all your power, in ridding the State of the evils which distress our citizens and menace the peace of the State. Many believe, and have shown your devotion to the Constitution and the laws, and evinced the same firmness, which have always been attributed to you, you might have arrested in the outset, the evils which now afflict them. They believe, there was no danger of civil war from the execution of the writs of habeas corpus in the first instance. They believe, if you had known Holden as well as the public do,—that he is an arrant coward, and if "Richmond" had been what he has been in days past, that Holden would have succumbed to the power of the law. If you had forced the issue upon him, your old friends would have honored you for it, and the people would have taken the responsibility. They are chagrined and disappointed, that a man who has heretofore shown that he bore his share of any responsibility, should have shirked responsibility on that occasion, and thus entailed upon our people, at least for a time, outrage and shameless villainy, by throwing all the responsibility upon Gov. Holden.

But let that pass. The people want prompt relief from Holden's and Kirk's and Clarke's illegal and unlawful State troops, and their outrages. President Grant said "Let us have Peace," you have also taken up the refrain and said "Let us have Peace," and now the people demand "Peace." It is in the reach of your influence and of your authority to give us peace. Holden's and Kirk's and Clarke's State Troops, are disturbers of the peace, they are a nuisance too grevous to be borne longer and it must be dated.

You know that Gov. Holden has violated the Constitution of North Carolina, violated the Constitution of the United States and violated the laws of the State, by enlisting a volunteer military force called State troops. You know that Holden and the Pubic Treasurer have no lawful right to pay a dollar out of the Treasury on account of these State Troops. You know that they have already paid out of a burdened Treasury a considerable sum. You know that our citizens have been illegally arrested wantonly and wickedly harrassed and outraged by Holden's troops—that citizens have been threatened, menaced and hung up to force from them confessions of lying falsehoods to implicate themselves and others. You know that the peaceable families of our best citizens in Alamance and Caswell are kept in constant alarm, night and day by these marauding, illegal State Troops. You know that our innocent, law-abiding people have borne the insults, outrages and crimes of these men without resistance. Not a hand has been raised against Holden or his State Troops, under all the provocations, insults, crimes and outrages committed against them. "Kirks Laws," many of them were enlisted in Tennessee. You know that many of them are the most abandoned of men—that they are committing depredations upon our innocent people in Caswell and Alamance daily. You know that there is no insurrection among the native people of those counties—that Kirk's and Clarke's State Troops and Gov. Holden and his abettors are the only insurrectionists in North Carolina.

Will you, clothed in your judicial ermine and holding the keys of the highest judicial authority in this State, longer suffer these outrages upon us? The people believe you can stop these lawless proceedings if you will. You may throw the responsibility upon Holden, let the people put the responsibility upon your shoulders. Will you do your duty and deliver the people from this curse. Will you restore peace to North Carolina. You can do it and you can do it at once, if you will. We wait anxiously, to see what you will do.

MANY CITIZENS.

August 20th, 1870.

REQUIREMENTS OF JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

Much trouble and expense to the county might be saved by a proper understanding of the requirements of the law on the part of Justices of the Peace and Grand Juries. We are informed that many presentments are made by the latter of persons for offenses which have already been examined into and finally disposed of by Justices of the Peace, under the impression that they are sworn to do so. Such, however, is not the case. For the better understanding of the subject, we publish the following act for the information of all concerned:

An act to Require a Return by Justices of the Peace of all Criminal Actions Disposed of by them to the Clerks' the Superior Court.

Section 1. The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, That it shall be the duty of each justice of the peace on or before Monday of every term of the Superior Court of his county, to furnish the clerk of said court with a list of the names and offences of all parties tried and finally disposed of by such justices of the peace, together with the papers in each case, in all criminal actions, since the last term of the Superior Court.

Sec. 2. That the clerk of the Superior Court shall hand a copy of such list to the Solicitor and to the grand jury, at each term of the Superior Court; and no indictment shall be found against any party whose case has been so finally disposed of by any justice of the peace: Provided, that this act shall not be deemed to extend or enlarge or otherwise affect the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, except as provided by law.

Sec. 3. That this act shall be in force from and after its ratification.

Ratified the 24th day of March, A. D. 1870.

During the old Democratic reign the yearly taxes of Rankin County Mississippi, amounted to $8,037.76, or $3.98 per capita for the white men, and not a cent of taxes for the negroes. Under the new law the yearly taxes of the same county aggregate $112,852, or at the rate of $41 for every man, black or white, in the county; the whites bearing the burden, as usual, of not only their own taxes, but those assessed on the negroes too. The last really representative Legislature of Arkansas appropriated the sum of $176,150 for all the expenses of the State government for the year 1867 and 1868 and part of 1869; the present Legislature appropriates for the same purposes for 1870-71 the sum of $417,309 a trifling increase of 250 per cent.—N. Y. World.

By an amendment to the Bankrupt Law persons are only required to pay fifty cents on the dollar of indebtness contracted since January 1869. It makes the law nearly what it was before the 50 per cent clause went into operation.

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. N. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, considerably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy holders, all the really desirable advantages. Its policies being non-forfeiting, the insured are privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in its profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stockholders alone which most of the Mutual and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this State, who claimed to possess unusual charms, together with the extraordinary attractions presented by the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was created, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Business forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

RECEPTION OF MR. TURNER AND OTHERS.

The people of North Carolina regardless of party or color are respectfully invited to attend THE GRAND MASS RECEPTION, to be given Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., Hon. John Kerr and others, recently arrested by Col. Geo. W. Kirk, on Thursday, 25th inst., 11 o'clock, A. M.

Raleigh, Aug. 20, 1870.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Please take notice of our new advertisements. We have not space for a particular notice.

SOUP AND CHOWDER, SOUP AND CHOWDER, at Popper & O'Connor's to-morrow.

Dr. J. A. Moore, of Alamance, requests us to state, that he begs the public to suspend its judgment upon his conduct in giving the "affidavit" published in the Standard over his signature, until he is able to lay before the public a full statement of all the facts in the case.

"KIRK'S LAMBS."—These unwashed scoundrels are still carrying on their depredations. We are credibly informed that on Friday morning last, several of them, entered the dwelling of Capt. George Williamson, of Caswell, before the family was dressed, and treated Mrs. Williamson and the children rudely. They professed to be in search of a negro in the dwelling of Mr. Williamson! Whether anything stuck to their fingers before they left, we have not heard.

YARBOROUGH HOUSE.—Our local and reporter tested to-day the ability of Dr. Blacknall at the Yarboro, to provide for the inner man. No one knows better how to have it done up than the Dr. The great difficulty is, that when a fellow gets to his table he does not know how to get away.—Large numbers are giving our new host at the Yarboro a call.

MISTAKE.—In inserting the charges entered by Mr. Badger against the prisoners on Saturday, we simply stated them as given by him. In doing so, it was erroneously stated that "Thomas J. Womack discharged by the Governor on confession." We are authorized by Mr. Womack to say, there is no truth in this—that he made no confession at any time, nor has he any to make.

MRS. EDWARD B. WHITE'S BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL.—On account of the pressure upon our columns we neglected, last week, to notice the card of Mrs. Edward B. White, Proprietress of this school, situated at number 59, West 42nd street, (Murray Hill) New York City. This is a select school for young ladies, in which the best instructors in every branch are employed, and all the accessories to a thorough education afforded. In a private note from the Proprietress she states that she will make liberal deductions in terms to Southerners. All necessary information will be furnished by applying as above. The academic year begins on the 20th of September and closes on the 20th of June.

We are requested to state that a special meeting of Post Sedgwick G. A. R., will be held at the Court House, Raleigh, N. C., on Tuesday evening, August 23rd, at 8 o'clock, P. M. A full attendance requested.

YOUTH HEADS OR AGED SHOULDERS.—It is no longer, a loathsome task to darken gray hair. PHALON'S VITALIA, OR SALVATION FOR THE HAIR, effects the change without any unclean accompaniment. It is a limpid, clear fluid, and has a pleasant aroma. The number of applications determines the shade. No sediment, no stickiness, no darkened bottles!

The Season of Exhaustion.

The close sultry weather which usually prevails toward the end of summer is particularly unfavorable to the feeble and enervated. Even the well-knit frames of strong men feel the influence of the season, and lassitude and languor pervade the whole community. Ladies, especially those in delicate health, suffer much from debility, occasioned by the humid heat, and feel the want of a wholesome invigorant. In fact, a necessity for something to recruit the exhausted system is experienced, more or less, by everybody, and the only question is, what that something shall be. With those who have tested the effect of Hostetter's stomach Bitters on themselves, or have observed its effects on others, this question will not be in doubt for a single moment. Its tonic and regulating operation, and its agency in creating a healthy appetite and promoting digestion, are rightly classed by all who have resorted to this unequalled vegetable invigorant and corrective, among the most extraordinary therapeutic wonders of modern times. It should be taken at this season as a safeguard against the epidemic diseases which are so apt to attack the relaxed system in the fall of the year.

As it is understood that mercenary speculators in various parts of the country are endeavoring to supersede the standard tonic of the age with worthless articles manufactured by themselves which they represent to be superior to this long tried remedy, it is proper to put the public on their guard against this species of imposition, and to warn them against the deleterious trash with which dishonorable dealers seek to drench them.

A singular affair took place in Schenectady a few days ago. As a cat story it goes ahead of anything of the kind we have heard. The father of a family just before retiring late at night heard groans in the room occupied by his daughter, a girl twelve years of age. Upon going to the room he found a cat upon the breast of the child with its fore legs around the child's neck and its mouth in the child's mouth. It was with some difficulty that the cat was removed. The child had evidently been asleep, and when found was so much exhausted by her breath having been obstructed that she had not strength enough to force the cat away. We have heard of cats causing the death of infants in this way, but never before heard of such an incident in connection with a girl twelve years of age. The facts were reported by the father himself. The girl has since been troubled in breathing.

For the Sentinel.

MR. EDITOR:—The recent election in our State have sent a thrill of joy through every patriotic heart; and when all have done so nobly, it might be considered unjust to make any discrimination, but I must be permitted to claim for old Buncombe, and her gallant Representative elect, Capt. Thomas D. Johnston, more than ordinary credit. It will be remembered that Buncombe was the strong hold of Radicalism. The party nominated W. G. Candler the old member—a great party favorite, and whose personal popularity, was a tower of strength. Yet all this would not avail. Capt. Johnston made an able and efficient canvass and his majority over his competitor was 462. Capt. Johnston is a young lawyer of great promise, he has a clear head, a sound judgment, and is a man of most excellent practical sense. He is a rising man and is destined to make his mark in world. He would make a capital presiding officer for the new House of Representatives. Is not old Buncombe entitled to the speaker? C.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The well-considered and temperate address of the gentlemen of "the old North State," the citizens of which were formerly thought to be among the most orderly, peaceable and well disposed of any in the Union, could not but commend itself to all but those who are seeking to inflame popular passion and to provoke popular violence, which they may urge as an excuse for their own infamous conduct. The sole object of the scoundrelly governor and his accomplices was to control the election in favor of the Radicals, which would be a vain attempt unless the voters were intimidated and coerced by military power. The people of North Carolina have given no cause for the action of Holden, the governor, who is sustained, it now appears, by United States troops ordered to the State by President Grant. This governor has arrested "many of the leading, most peaceful and unoffending of citizens," and they have been subjected to horrible tortures, in the hope of wringing from them admission of their participation in insurrectionary acts which have not been committed by anybody. It is well known that the charge against them is a mere sham.

In spite of all these villainous attempts at intimidation, however, the North Carolinians have done nobly. There is reason to believe that they have elected five out of the seven members of Congress, instead of two only to the last Congress, and the choice of the Legislature gives assurance of the election of a Conservative United States Senator. The revolution in the South promises to be more rapid than was generally feared, and the best hope may be entertained of a powerful minority, to be respected, if not an actual Democratic majority, in the next House of Representatives. —Boston Courier.

A GLANCE SOUTHWARD.

The outrage mill of the Tribune is again grinding grievances for the North Carolina murderers and thieves. Far from accepting defeat fairly given and administered in spite of martial law and military terrorism, the North Carolina carpet-baggers and scalawags have begun already to manufacture stories of disarmed and unresisting Conservatives having prevented negroes from voting in that State. The seats of the Congressmen elect are to be contested and Holden is conferring with Kelly and Butler how to reverse the verdict of the State. The palliation of defeat is proposed in renewed reconstruction and continued military occupation. The Tribune abets this work and all its staff are busy inventing outrages and putting North Carolina and Washington dates over them. This business is baser than the crimes of Benedict Arnold, for he risked something and didn't pretend not to be a traitor. The apprehensions of Northern Conservatives that this North Carolina conspiracy will succeed are futile. The same thing was tried in the cases of redeemed Tennessee and Virginia. It covered its authors with infamy. Holden and Company will retire when their time is up. If they attempt to hold over by violence, they will be treated the same as any other outlaws, and the Raleigh undertakers will not be out of business. The Congressmen elect will be admitted, because they can take the oath and because the next House will be Democratic by a decided majority, unless all the signs fail. If clerk McPherson behaves in an ugly manner, the revolution which his refusal to organize the House would constitute, will be met by summary measures in the interest of the Congress of the people. After all, these Southern fellows and Washington fellows do not so much mean mischief as money. They may be able to begin trouble, but they are likely to be settled with upon about an eighth of their own terms.—Brooklyn Eagle.

THE RADICAL USURPATION.

The scheme of imposing State governments on the South by sheer force is the resort of a party that has fallen so low in the esteem of all men, that no class of voters will sustain it. This is illustrated in North Carolina. There the experiment has been tried, unsuccessfully. In no State of the Union was there less excuse for trying it. No one of the Southern States has returned more frankly and willingly to its relations with the Federal government, for no State at the South more reluctantly withdrew from them. The Union sentiment in North Carolina was always strong, stimulated, no doubt, by an antagonism to her neighbor, South Carolina, in which a certain school of politicians formerly advocated nullification and secession. The attempt of the Radicals to subjugate North Carolina has no colorable pretext; it is the effort of a band of robbers and speculators to plunder the State, and to overcome by military violence, the legal opposition of the great body of the citizens. * * * * * * * * *

—Philadelphia Age.

THE OLDEST MAN IN ALABAMA.—Mr. John Martin, living near Opelika, died on Monday, August 1st, one hundred and three years old a few days before his death. He was a native of North Carolina, and has been a citizen of this place ten years. The Revolutionary struggle began in his boyhood, and many of its incidents were familiarly recalled. For several months the mental and physical energy that had sustained him through so many years had been impaired, until he had lost consciousness of everything about him. Throughout his long life he was never known to take a single dose of medicine, or call in the services of a physician. It is well enough, for the benefit of our young men, to add that until he was thirty one years of age he had never indulged in any of the vices that are common to that period of life.—Opelika Locomotive.

"KILL THE D——M REBELS" is the watch word of Holden's cut-throats while Grant looks on approvingly. Is this the "peace" he was to "let us have"? Have not ex-rebels (so called) any rights which Radicals should respect?—Miss Clarion.

The Tarboro' Southerner says: Col. Samuel L. Arrington, of Montgomery county, Ala., a native of this State and who for a number of years represented Nash county in the Legislature, is now on a visit to his relations and friends in North Carolina.

FLORENCE, August 20.—There was a violent debate in the Italian Chambers yesterday. Deputy Millina accused the Ministers of violating the neutrality of Italy by sending Italian troops to defend the Pope. One of the Ministers replied that Mazzini had been arrested for traveling in Sicily under a false name. The government was well aware of all his plans and determined to defeat them. Mazzini would have a fair trial. Sicily was especially inflammable. Deputy Botana denounced the arrests as illegal.

The Pr sse estimates the Prussian loss for the last three days at 30 000.

Prince Napoleon arrived here yesterday.

Bazaine, whose retreat the Prussians say they have stopped, is in a position enabling him to support either Metz or Verdun. His still keeps plans and movements a profound secret.

Gen. Trochu to-day published a letter explaining how he desires to aid the people. He says: "the idea of maintaining order by force of the bayonet and sword in a town which is so agitated and given up to grief fills me with horror and disgust, but I can, with the aid of those having such sentiments, (that is what I term moral aid) who at any moment may arrive when malefactors, seeing us defending the city, will seek to pillage. Those who are honest must seize them.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, August 21.—The United States Consul at Liverpool reports to the State Department in consequence of the continued increase of fever in Liverpool, he has deemed it his duty to suspend the issue of certificates to bills of health for the present. He further states that during the first five days previous to August 6th, over one hundred and sixty cases were received into the parish hospital, which is full to overflowing. There are two hundred and ten cases more than there were a month ago under treatment.

He personally headed the charges. His aid-de-camp had an arm shot off by his side. At Pont a Mousson the Prussians continue their exhorbitant exactions from the people and endeavor to make 5,000 people feed a hundred and fifty thousand troops.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 22.—The Paris correspondent of the Courier Des Etats says: I have myself seen the latest dispatches from Bazaine and he declares positively he is victor. His strategical movement was accomplished, but attended with great loss. The correspondent reproaches the government for withdrawing his re-assuring dispatch from the public. He sums up the combats of the last seven days and says the decisive result. One thing is certain, the army of the crown Prince continues its march towards Paris via Vitry Le Francois, avoiding Chalons. The Emperor and McMahon are at Chalons. In the meantime Frochu's measures indicate the besiegment of Paris imminent. Yesterday fifty thousand guns were distributed. Grain has arrived in vast qualities.

One hundred and fifty thousand men passed from the front through Paris since Friday morning. It is generally thought that the march of the Prussians cannot be checked before reaching Paris. There is said to be three hundred thousand good troops at and around Paris. It is believed that one decisive battle gives Paris to the Prussians.

CHOLERA.

HOW TO CURE IT.

At the commencement of the Diarrhœa, which always precedes an attack of the Cholera, take a teaspoonful of the Pain Killer in sugar and water, (hot, if convenient) and then bathe freely the stomach and bowels with the Pain Killer clear. Should the diarrhœa or cramps continue, repeat the dose every ten or fifteen minutes until the patient is relieved. In extreme cases, two or more teaspoonfuls may be given at a dose.

The Pain Killer, as an internal remedy, has no equal. In cases of Cholera, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Diarrhœa, Asthma, cures in one night by taking it internally, and bathing with it freely. Its action is like magic, when externally applied to Old Sores, Burns, Scalds, and Sprains. For Sick Headache and Toothache, don't fail to try it. In short, it is a PAIN KILLER. Directions accompany each bottle.

The Pain Killer is sold by all dealers in Medicines.

THE EQUITABLE
HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

Its New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd;

In 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, Interest at six per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

Gentlemen of character desirous of forming a connection with the Society as Agents are invited to communicate with its General Agents.

Guaranteed to make a better and safer Light than Coal Oil and to be NON-EXPLOSIVE!!!

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 25 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and uninjurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 15th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its cheapness added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judicious economy, management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.

Gen'l. S. B. BUCKNER, Manager Southern Dep't.

The Globe has peculiar claims upon the Southern country, from having first introduced the non-forfeiting feature in all its policies, its President, Mr. Pliny Freeman, was the inventor of the ten-year, non-forfeiture plan, and introduced it in the Company with which he was then connected.

The Globe takes no notes; but receives its premiums in cash, and pays its policies in cash, without deduction.

To those desiring it, the Company will issue policies, registered and countersigned by the Superintendent of the Insurance Department of New York, as "secured by pledge of public stock."
